

1. This contract reflects the verbal agreement. It shall include any terms agreed prior to its issue. It shall be deemed un-accepted unless the booking form and retainer reservation fee is received by Domain Music within 7 working days of the issuing date. No alterations may be made to this contract by hirer / contracted artiste's / crisis cover entertainers without prior approval consent from Domain Music. Please Note: by completing and sending this booking form, you agree that you are making a confirmed booking and entering into a contract which carries your acceptance, in full, of the booking terms.
2. Cheque payments are accepted by Domain Music for balance settlement. Cheques should be made payable to 'Domain Music'.
- 3 Reservation fee: you agree to our reservation fee which is payable in advance to secure entertainment. Reservation fee as stated / deducted from the price quoted.
4. Overtime Charge: Any extension to the agreed timescale will be charged in addition to the booking fee per hour (or part hour), thereafter, which shall be payable in advance before commencement of extended entertainment.
5. The Client shall have the right to cancel the booking by serving upon Domain Music not less than 28 clear days notice in writing. In the event of the client wishing to cancel this contract agreement, any deposit payment will be forfeited.
6. A cancellation fee of not less than 50% of the agreed fee will be due if the cancellation is within fourteen days of the performance.
7. A cancellation fee of not less than 75% of the agreed fee will be due if the cancellation is within seven days of the performance.
8. The whole of the agreed fee will be due if cancellation is within 48 hours of the performance.
9. In the unlikely event that Domain Music is unable to attend personally due to accident or sudden illness, Domain Music shall endeavour to provide a suitable substitute offering a similar service at no additional charge to the client, or if the option is not taken, a full refund will be offered. In the event of adverse weather conditions or circumstances beyond Domain Music control, contact will be made to enquire if timings can be delayed, to ensure that a performance is offered, and fulfilled.
10. The hirer will appreciate that suitable time for venue access, safe installation and dismantling and safe removal of equipment from venue is required in addition to performance time. Therefore, the hirer and venue will allow suitable time for the installation and dismantling and removal of disco equipment (up to 90 minutes each side of the booking times). Where appropriate, the hirer will also inform the venue, in advance, of artiste(s) requirements.
11. Performance time and 'over time' is restricted to a maximum of eight hours in a 24 hour period. Unless already agreed at the time of booking, the hirer agrees to make provision for suitable overnight accommodation to the satisfaction of the performer if time is exceeded.
12. The hirer will ensure that safe and adequate power is available for Domain Music to perform.
13. The hirer will inform Domain Music prior to performance date confirmation of venue sound limiter installation.
14. The hirer agrees to arrange suitable changing facilities for artiste's as required.
15. The hire ensures that they have verified venue power sources are electrically safe and conform to the HSE EAW Act 1989, and amendments thereafter. Copies of venue Electrical Installation Safety Certificate (Periodic Inspection Report to NIC EIC standards) must be made available upon request by the venue under LAW.
16. Domain Music agrees to provide proof of Public Liability Insurance and certifications as required by the venue.

17. Domain Music and any assistant(s) will respond to the hirer's reasonable request(s) and conduct themselves in a professional manner throughout attendance at the venue.
18. Domain Music will respond to the venue management's reasonable requests as to volume, sitting of equipment and or any other reasonable request(s).
19. The artiste(s) shall be in no way liable for breach of byelaws or conditions under which the venue is leased, hired or entrusted to the venue management.
20. The hirer will notify Domain Music of that all appropriate licences as required by law are in force at the time of performance(s).
21. The hirer agrees to provide adequate supervision of guests and will ensure that venue management adequately supervises customers and or staff on site premises. Please note: Where the function may include guests under the age of 16 years, the client, (or parent) is responsible for the behaviour and safety of any minors attending the venue. The client will provide and maintain adequate adult supervision at all times. Domain Music will not be liable for the supervision of minors.
22. Unwarranted Abuse or threatening behaviour from hirer's guests or venue management or venue staff will not be tolerated and will result in the performance being terminated with no loss to Domain Music.
23. The hirer agrees that compensation for any loss of or damage to performing artists(s) equipment, vehicle(s) or personal belongings caused by hirer's guests, venue customers and or venue staff may be sought in full, including any additional costs.
24. The hirer agrees that the confirmed entertainment start and finish times as specified in the contract are accurate and correct. Any extension beyond the confirmed finish time is at the discretion of Domain Music and the management of the venue, and will come with additional Overtime Costs.
25. Domain Music will accept music lists and requests in advance of functions and will endeavour to play a reasonable number of the clients' chosen requests, provided such requests are submitted in writing before the event. The client also agrees that Domain Music cannot guarantee the inclusion of any difficult to source, obsolete or deleted titles either requested at the event or previously notified.
26. Where the client requests that Domain Music set up DJ equipment at an earlier time prior to the actual start of the function, the client acknowledges that a tiered charge may be made for this additional service, and that this service will be subject to availability.
27. Domain Music will not be liable for any refund, in part or whole, where 'we' are late accessing the venue and setting up purely because of earlier events over-running, or where 'we' are prevented from accessing, setting up or providing our professional services by the venue management.
28. Where Domain Music is engaged to work alongside a band, (or other entertainer) it is the client's responsibility to ensure that adequate space exists within the venue for both entertainers to set up their equipment and that separate power outlets exist.

In signing the contract, I agree that I have read the Terms and Conditions of hire and acknowledge booking details contained herein are correct.
